WEDNESDAY, JULY 10, 1745.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Flanders.

Part of the genuine Dispatch of the Chevalier D'Alfieri to his Sardinian Majesty. Turin, June 19, 1745.

ON the 16th of this Month, at 'the very Peep of Day, the
'Chevalier Alfieri, Command-
'ant of the King's Forces that
'are at present in the County
'of Nice, march'd with Ma'jor Pianavia, and the Che'valier Galeau, at the Head of
'400 Men belonging to the 'Train, and 8 or 900 Militia, to destroy the Magazines which the French have for some Months establishing at Ventemi- in its Neighbourhood. After a tedious and painful h of Ten Hours, without halting, we arrived at Gates of the City. There was some Time spent aking over the Matter with the Genoese Gover-; but after the Conference was over, we enter'd Place without the smallest Opposition, and drew r Troops in the great Square.

here was at this Time a French Officer, Captain e Regiment of Guienne, with 50 Men. The Step we took, was to desire him in the civilleſt er possible, to lay down his Arms, and to sur- Prisoner of War; to which Request he yielded l the good Manners in the World; and there- he, with the rest of his People, were sent under Escort to Breil. This Affair over, we immediately pon. Seven Magazines that were in the Town, he Wind being pretty high, we committed the they contained to its Care; by which Means it peedily dispersed all over the Country. At the me we set fire to 13 Stacks of Hay, of a most ous Size; which being to the Windward of of Corn, 69 Yards broad, 86 long, and 12 was burnt down immediately. At some Di- from thence there was another Stack of Corn, te so big, surrounded with 24 Stacks of Hay Straw, which we consumed in like manner. The Corn, and Oats, which we found in great Quan- in the Convent of the Augustines, we either t out of the Windows, or scattered about the and trampled under Foot. The Forage ich was in the Garden belonging to the Monastery likewise burnt, as well as five or six vast Hay s that were in their Meadows. The Warehouses Bacon and Hams were provided for next; of them we fired and burnt to the Ground, but e forc'd to throw the Contents of the rest into Water, for fear of consuming the Town; to h, during the whole Time, we did not the least chief. We found here 200 Mules, which arrived Day before with the Baggage of M. de la Porta, ant-General, which were of great Service to inasmuch as they enabled us to carry away what did not think fit to destroy.

all human Probability the French Cavalry will able to march this Season for want of these Ma- upon which they depended, and which must ly have cost them vast Sums of Money. The ying these Magazines at this Juncture was of in- greater Consequence than if they had been de- before, because it will oblige the Enemy to ck their Cavalry, and may, very probably, dis- their Expedition on this Side; inasmuch as it Loss, which, as Things now stand, they can repair, nor endure. The Genoese Governor on with Amazement; but declar'd, that he no Orders from the Republick either to defend or to act offensively, on any Account whatever, the Troops of his Sardinian Majesty. We have from him a Certificate of our good Behaviour, that, in the whole Affair, we did nothing which give Umbrage to the Genoese.'

Rome, June 22. On the 21st the Marquis Silva re- back from Genoa the Courier which he had last dispatched to M. de Gages, concerning his Nego- with the Regency about the Passage of the Spa- and Neapolitan Troops thro' Tuscany; and in Con- ce thereof, dispatch'd a Courier to Viterbo that notwithstanding which, as he has not made ther Application to the Regency on that Head, it ed upon that the Passage of the said Troops is present laid aside.

Vienna, July 3. On the 11th past, Vice-Admiral Rowley ed with his Britannick Majesty's Ships off Faro. Toulon Squadron was not returned to the Bay of Cadiz the 5th Instant. Three Register Ships, which were expected from Vera Cruz, are got into the Bay of Cadiz. They called at the Havanna, and came all from thence, with two more, which have not yet appeared. The Money brought by these three Ships is only 70,000 Pieces of Eight, for the Payment of their respective Crews. All the rest, which they had on board in Register, was taken out at the Havanna; and the same is now done to all the Register Ships that come from Vera Cruz, or any other Part of America, and touch at the Havanna.

HOME PORTS.

Deal, July 8. Wind N. E. by N. His Majesty's Ships, with the Outward-bound, remain as per last; with the Dublin Merchant, Thomas, and the Mary, Lowder, both for Dublin.

Gravesend, July 8. Passed by the Lawrence, Buckman, the Two Brothers, Nicholson, the Patientia, Grott, and the Clansbirtle, Bosso, all from Norway; the Happy Return, White, from Boston, last from Antigua; the Lucy, Purchas, the Preston, Hallum, the Gedion, Peirs, the John, Crosthwait, the Mary, Edmonds, the Richard and Martha, Everdon, the Leopard, Hardy, the Anne, Gile, and the Rysbrack, Dunford, all from Oporto; the Salisbury, Hancock, the King of Portugal, Hughes, the Henrietta, Taverner, the Judith, Bradshaw, the Pretty Patsey, Blake, the Great Britain's Prize, the Julius Cæsar, Williams, the St. Barnard's Prize, Thompson, the Duke of Cumberland, Tate, the Mafra, Smith, the Britannia, Goddise, the Kouli Khan's Prize, and the Garland's Prize, Hobbs, all from Lisbon.

Arrived,

In the River, the Windsor, Chaffers, from Liverpool; the Mediterranean, Gardiner, the Dryden, Knowler, the Duke of Cumberland, Easton, the Industry, Knowler, the Jean Francis Prize, and the Languedock Prize, all from Lisbon; and the Ashby, Wheeler, from Oporto.

LONDON.

There are Letters by the last Lisbon Male, which arrived Yesterday, that say there is still a strong Party in the Spanish Ministry for Peace; and that the Promotion of the French Marshal de Maillebois to the Rank of Captain-General, and of the French Ambassador (tho' an Ecclesiastick) to that of Grandee, gives universal Discontent to the Nobility of Spain.

By General Count Schulembourg's advancing as he has done with the Queen of Hungary's Troops to Novi, the Scheme of the Count de Gages is entirely defeated; for he has occupied the Plain so as to prevent their obtaining either Forage or Provisions from the only Part of the Genoese Dominions, which are capable of furnishing any Thing for their Subsistence.

We are informed, that since the Rowley Powly Gentry have been driven by the Hand of Justice from their Head Quarters in Covent-Garden, they have thought fit to entrench themselves somewhere behind Ludgate, but there is good Reason to believe their new Camp has been reconnoitred, and that the next News we shall hear, is, that they have once more moved without Beat of Drum.

The Swift and Cæsar Privateers have taken, and brought into the Downs, the Fortune, Capt. Boyson, of and from Copenhagen for Spain.

The Postillion, of and from Cadiz for La Vera Cruz, with Quicksilver and Bale Goods, was taken the 11th of March, in Latt. 14: by Capt. Jefferies in the Greyhound, and Capt. Richards in the William, two Privateers belonging to New-York, and is carried into Antigua.

Yesterday John Blachford and Francis Cockayne, Esqrs, Aldermen, were chosen Sheriffs of this City and County of Middlesex, for the Year ensuing.

Yesterday was married at the Greek Church in York Buildings, Alexander Persecholow, Esq; Secretary to his Excellency Prince Cherbatow, Ambassador from the Court of Russia, to Miss Pepin, Governess to the Prince's Children.

Last Night the Neice of the Right Hon. the Lord Chief Justice Willes lay at the Point of Death, at her Lodgings in Grigg-street, Soho.

This Day the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor will hold the First General Seal at Lincoln's-Inn Hall after Trinity Term.

Yesterday the Six following Malefactors were Executed at Tyburn; viz. Benjamin Stevens, John Simmons, John Jeffs, Joseph Lucas, Margaret Greenaway, and Anne Rush.

This Day the Sessions begins at the Old Baily.

Circuit appointed for the following Counties in South Wales.

Rogers Holland, Esq Thomas Martyn, Esq;

Merionethshire. Saturday, August 10, at Dolegelly.
Carnarvonshire. Saturday, ditto 17, at Carnarvon.
Anglesea. Friday, ditto 23, at Beaumaris.

From the London Gazette.

Admiralty-Office, July 8. Capt. Douglas, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Greyhound, of 20 Guns, in his Passage from Cork to Lisbon, on the 15th of April last, at Sun Rising, saw two Sail in Lat. 45: 58 North, to which he gave Chace, and about Nine got up with the Sternmost; and after exchanging a few Shot, she struck. He then made Sail after the other, and came up with her at Two, when she struck without firing a Gun. The one proved to be the Benjamin, Capt. Daniel Suire, a Ship of 20 Guns and 57 Men; the other the Neptune, Capt. Larroque Furgeau, a Ship of 18 Guns and 47 Men, both from St. Domingo, but last from Havanna. Their Lading is Indigo, Sugar, and about 1500 Dollars. He has carried them into Lisbon.
